How to make a police report in San Francisco

There are four ways to make a police report:

1) By telephone for non-emergency incidents that need an investigation. Callers can receive assistance by calling (415) 553-0123 to report non-emergency incidents. TTY callers will be transferred to a TTY call taker and translation assistance is available for limited English speaking persons.

Note: Life threatening emergencies or crime-in-progess calls should be reported immediately by calling 9-1-1.

2) In person by going to any of the ten district stations:
Central—766 Vallejo Street @ Stockton Street
Southern—850 Bryant Street @ 7th Street
Bayview—201 Williams Street @ Newhall Street
Mission—630 Valencia Street @ 17th Street
Northern—1125 Fillmore Street @ Turk Street
Park—1899 Waller Street @ Kezar Drive
Richmond--461-6th Avenue @ Geary Boulevard
Ingleside-- #1 Sgt. John V. Young Lane
Taraval 2345-24th Avenue @ Taraval Street
Tenderloin—301 Eddy Street @ Jones Street

3) By calling the Teleserve Department:
Callers can contact the Teleserve Department to report property crime where no suspect information is available. The service is available from 8:30 am to 4:00pm Monday through Friday. Callers can be referred to the service by calling (415) 553-0123 or by calling direct at (415) 553-4912.

4) By Online Reporting:
The service can be accessed via the S.F.P.D. Website at www.sfgov.org/police and selecting the Online Reporting Icon on the home page. Reports where there is no suspect information and no evidence that needs to be collected. Reports can be made for the following types of crimes. Harassing telephone calls, Auto burglary, Graffiti, Vandalism, Lost property, and Theft. You must have an email address to use this service. An added benefit is that when your report is reviewed and approved (usually within 5 days), an approved copy of the report will be emailed back to you.

Tuesday, December 27, 2005. 9:16 AM – Suspicious Occurrence – Case #: 051448833 – 26th St. and Indiana St.
Bayview Officer Alcaraz responded to the intersection of Indiana and 26th St. when a US Postal driver reported that a package had tumbled in his truck and a mysterious white powder had fallen out of it. The Postal driver began vomiting after contacting the substance. Officers promptly set up a perimeter fearing they had a serious hazardous material spill on their hands. The SFFD Hazardous Material Truck, Heavy Rescue Truck, Engine 26, Medic 29, and Medic 35 quickly responded to the scene along with SFPD Special Investigation Inspectors. A US Postal Service Inspector also arrived on the scene. SFFD Hazardous Material members approached the Postal Truck. They quickly determined that the fallen package had managed to partially discharge a wall-mounted fire extinguisher in the back of the truck. The white powder was simply the fire suppression material from the extinguisher. The Postal driver was treated and released at the scene.

Tuesday, December 27, 2005. 1:45 PM – Street Robbery – Case #: 051449900 – Wisconsin at Connecticut.
Bayview Housing Authority Officer Fowlie met with a robbery victim at the above intersection. The woman explained that she was running towards a MUNI bus when she noticed three black juveniles following her. As she began to climb the steps of the bus, one of the juveniles ripped her purse from her shoulder. The force caused the woman to fall onto the bus steps causing minor injuries. The MUNI bus driver gave a similar account of the event. The suspect who grabbed the purse is described as a black male, 15-20 years of age, 5’08” 150 lbs., wearing a turquoise jacket and dark jeans. Bayview Officers later found the purse in front of a Dakota St. address. Apparently nothing had been taken from the purse.

People who ride MUNI should be aware that it is not an uncommon practice for robbers on the street to pull belongings from unsuspecting victims as they climb aboard buses or trains.

Tuesday, December 27, 2005. 2:40 PM – Street Robbery – Case #: 051450474 – San Bruno Ave. at Silliman.
Bayview Officer Haynes took a counter report from a robbery victim at Bayview Station. The victim described how he was walking down San Bruno Ave. at Silliman when 8 black male juveniles started following him. The youths demanded to know, "What sect you from!" After the victim stated that he did not belong to a "sect", the juveniles grabbed him and pulled his jeans off. The suspects fled on foot with the victim's jeans. The victim described the suspects as black males, 15-16 years old. They were all about 5'03" tall and weighed around 120 lbs.

Tuesday, December 27, 2005. 11:17 PM – Attempted Homicide w/ Gun – Case #: 051451808 – Northridge at Dormitory.
Bayview Officer Jackson and numerous other Bayview Officers responded to a shooting call at an address near the above intersection. At the scene they found a young man who had been shot in the abdomen. Officers were able to determine that the man had been socializing in his house when he answered a knock at the door. The man went outside and talked to several unknown people for about five minutes. Then, as the man turned to enter into the house, an unknown suspect fired several rounds at him. The man was treated at SFGH. SFPD General Work Inspectors are investigating the case.

Wednesday, December 28, 2005. 3:19 PM – Warrant Arrest, Fraudulent Possession of ID Cards – Case #: 051454012. 100 Block of Westpoint Rd.
Bayview Officer Robinson learned that a wanted suspect was in a rental car just around the corner from his location. He and several other Housing Authority Officers responded to the area. Officer Robinson saw the wanted woman parking a rental car. He had been trying to locate this particular suspect for several months now. The officers stopped the woman and quickly confirmed her identity and her warrants. The Officers also found three CA driver's licenses in her purse. Each license belonged to a different woman. Not surprisingly, one of the suspect's warrants was for fraudulent possession of an ID card! When the Officers searched the car's trunk they found $1600.00 of clothing merchandise with the security tags still attached. Also in the trunk were bags lined with metal ducting material. Thieves use these bags to bypass store security systems. The woman was booked at County Jail #9 on numerous charges and warrants.

Thursday, December 29, 2005. 12:15 PM – Aggravated Assault with a Gun – Case #: 051457395. Oakdale Ave. at Baldwin Ct.
Bayview Officer Altorfer and numerous other Bayview Officers arrived at the intersection of Oakdale and Baldwin on the report of shots fired in the area. The Officers found a young man on the sidewalk. He was bleeding from a gunshot wound to the leg. Other shots had penetrated vehicles and apartment units in the area. The man was transported to SFGH for treatment. Officers eventually learned that this might have been a "drive-by" shooting incident. SFPD General Works Inspectors are investigating the case.

Friday, December 30, 2005. 8:35 PM – Street Robbery, Aggravated Assault with a Gun – Case #: 051463091. 5100 Block of 3rd St.
Bayview Officer Berge responded to the 5100 block of 3rd St. on the report of a shooting. He arrived to find a man with a large bullet wound in his hand. Apparently the man had just left a local restaurant when two unknown males approached him. The men demanded his money. Unsatisfied with the victim's money, the men began to rip jewelry from the victim's neck, wrists, and fingers. The suspects then dragged the man to the ground and shot him. The victim was transported to SFGH. Suspect #1 is described as a black male of unknown age. He stood 5'07" and weighed 110 lbs. He wore a black jacket and wore a white scarf over his face. He was armed with a pistol. Suspect #2 is a black male of similar height and weight. He wore a brown jacket and a brown scarf over his face. SFPD Robbery inspectors are investigating the case.

Saturday, 12/31/05, 10:22 PM – Aggravated Assault, "Bayview Station's Last Arrest of 2005." – Carr Street - CS #: 051 466 443.
Bayview Station's last arrest of 2005 was committed by an outer Mission resident. The victim reports that he was drinking with the arrestee and another suspect that he knew to have the moniker of "Happy". After a few 'sociables' the victim and the arrestee got into an argument that turned physical.

"Happy" was not so happy and brandished a gun and pointed it at the victim and said, "If you call the police, I'll kill you." The victim believed that he was relieved of his wallet and cell phone during the encounter.

The arrestee thought he would hide out in an "Alcoholics Anonymous" meeting around the corner on Third Street. Since he was intoxicated he was not welcome there and easy to locate. However, "Happy" is still outstanding.

Sunday, 01/01/2006, 1:33 AM – Suspended Driver's License, Crack Offense, "Bayview Station's First Arrest of 2006" – Phelps Street and Fairfax - CS #: 060 000 410
Bayview Station's first arrest of 2006 goes to Officer Alex Kwan, who also happens to be the 'SFPD's Officer of the Month – December 2005'. Officer Kwan who was working with his New Year's Squad when he saw a vehicle driving on San Francisco Streets with expired registration tabs. A traffic stop was made and it was discovered that the driver who was operating the vehicle on a suspended license also had a crack cocaine pipe in his lap. Further, there was crack cocaine in the center console.

Sunday 01/01/06, 2:23 AM – Possession of a Machine Gun – Double Rock Court - CS #: 060 000 711
Officer Benzinger and Sgt. Dempsey were inside the Double Rock Housing Project when they heard automatic gunfire. Officer Benzinger saw a male driving a vehicle in the area. When the male saw Officer Benzinger he attempted to conceal himself with his arm, but Officer Benzinger already saw the male and recognized him not only to have many pending cases for drugs and weapons charges but also to have a suspended license.

The driver parked his car and exited. Officer Benzinger heard a something fall to the ground with a loud 'thud'. The object turned out to be an automatic machine gun style pistol. The subject was booked for numerous gun charges and driving on a suspended license.

Sunday 01/01/06, 2:35 PM – Carjacking with a gun – Palou at Jennings - CS #: 060 002 171
Sgt. Furminger was on patrol in the Bayview when a car sped up to him. On of the occupants got out of the car and ran up to Sgt. Furminger. The man told Sgt. Furminger that he had just been carjacked. The suspect approached the victim and held a gun to his head and demanded his car. The man and his passenger exited his vehicle and gave it to the suspect.

A few minutes later the car was spotted at a dead end street a few blocks away. The car was towed and DNA and fingerprint analysis is pending. The subject is described as a Black male between 22-25 years old. He was wearing a black hooded sweatshirt, a black bandana, and black jeans.

Monday 01/02/06, 10:25 AM – Street Robbery with a gun – 3rd and Thomas - CS #: 060 004 989
Officers Tong and Knoble were flagged down by a witness who told them that an elderly woman was just robbed. The witness pointed to the victim who was across the street. The victim told the officers that she was waiting for the bus when a male who appeared to be waiting for the bus attempted to pull her purse off her shoulder. A vehicle that was waiting around the corner pulled along side the victim and the suspect. The first suspect was still attempting to pull the purse off the woman as he was turning to the get away car. The woman fell to the ground and was still holding onto her purse as the suspect was running away. The suspect managed to get the purse away and get into the car.

The victim, who out of fear did not identify herself, suffered what appeared to be minor cuts and scrapes. The suspect was described as a Black male in his early 20's, 6'00", thin build. He was wearing a light colored jacket with fur lining around the hood, blue beanie, and a blue t-shirt. The car was a 4-door white Buick, possibly a LeSabre. It was operated by another black male with two more males in the back seat.

Monday 01/02/06, 6:50 PM – Attempted Car Jacking, Shooting. Silver Avenue and Conklin Street - CS #: 060 006 725
Officers Luedtke and McCormick were notified by SF General Hospital Staff regarding a person that was brought to the hospital with a gunshot wound. Officers Luedtke and McCormick were unable to speak with the victim who was now in surgery. They spoke to the victim's friends that were at the hospital and had witnessed the incident. They told the officers that the victim was driving his car on Silver Avenue near the intersection of Conklin Street. The victim slowed his car for the pedestrians in the sidewalk. As the victim drove slowly through the area one of the 'pedestrians' brandished a revolver and said, "Take your keys out of the ignition." The victim then sped away. The 'pedestrian' fired the gun numerous times, striking the driver in the arm and stomach.

The suspects were described as young Black males. One of them had black hooded sweatshirt.
