SIGNIFICANT INCIDENTS:

June 12, 2008 – 3:08 PM – Aggravated Assault with a Gun – 17th and Arkansas – CS# 080 616 053 - Numerous Bayview Officers responded to Jackson Playground located at 17th and Arkansas Streets regarding a fight involving serveral persons. Prior to the officer's arrival the melee had ended. Two witnesses told officers that a group of students from an area school were walking and were approached by three males. An argument ensued; one of the males took a handgun from his waistband and smacked one individual on the side of the head. All parties then fled the scene. The witnesses gave the police the name of the suspect and the victim. Another witness believed that the suspect and victim might be brothers. A check of area hospitals for the victim was negative. The case is under investigation.

ARRESTS OF INTEREST:

June 11, 2008-Warrant Arrest-Oakdale/Rankin-8:03pm-CN#080613225: Officers McCormick and Ng were traveling on Oakdale when they observed a person, traveling in a car, in violation of a California Vehicle Code. Officers stopped the vehicle and spoke with the driver. Through an investigation, officers found that the driver was wanted for a parole violation. The driver was placed under arrest without incident.

June 11, 2008-Narcotics Offense-Quesada/Selby-3:45pm-CN#080612170: Members of Bayview Stations plainclothes team were in the area of Quesada and Selby. Officers saw a vehicle parked on the street with its windows rolled down and several people inside. Officers passed the vehicle and smelled the odor of suspected marijuana coming from the vehicle. Further investigation revealed suspected heroin and suspected liquid heroin that is used in the eye by drug abusers. The driver was placed under arrest.

June 11, 2008-Narcotics Offense-Commer Ct-3:05pm-CN#080611912: Members of Bayview's plain clothes team were on patrol in the area of Commer Court. They spotted a parolee exit a parked car that contained numerous individuals smoking marijuana. A search of the persons was performed and methamphetamine was found on one person. He was booked for narcotics related charges. A computer check revealed that the parolee had a warrant for robbery. He too was booked. The other individuals were advised and released.

June 12, 2008 – 4:42 PM – Disturbing the Peace – 3rd Street and Newcomb Avenue – CS# 080 616 445 – Officer Haynes and his partner, Officer Ochoa, were on patrol in the area of Third Street and Newcomb Avenue when they saw a man acting irrationally. The man was walking down the street pounding on windows and yelling. The Officers stopped the man to investigate. When they pulled next to him, the man challenged the Officers to fight and then began to pound his fists on the patrol car. The Officers got out of the car and the man yelled, "What are you going to arrest me for….assault on a police car?" The Officers did not arrest the man for that; instead he was arrested for disturbing the peace and being drunk in public.

June 12, 2008 – 5:32 PM – Narcotics and Gang Offense – 100 block of Westpoint Road – CS# 080 616 605 – Plainclothes Officers spotted two parolees that are also validated gang members, sitting in a parked car. Because they are on parole they are subject to search by law enforcement at anytime. A narcotics dog was summoned to the location. Narcotics K-9, Crocker Star #7, arrived and indicated to his handler that there may be narcotics secreted in the door panel. A search of the panel revealed that there was a substantial amount of crack cocaine packaged for individual sale. The men, area residents, were booked on narcotics and gang related charges.

June 12, 2008 – 6:50 PM – Robbery Arrest – 3rd Street and Hollister Avenue – CS# 080 616 746 – Bayview Officers reported that a woman was walking on Hollister Avenue from Third Street, to her home. She was approached from behind by two juveniles. When they got close to the woman the juveniles ripped the victim's purse off her shoulder and fled on foot.

Approximately an hour later, the victim called 911 and told the police that one of her assailants was standing on the 1100 block of Hollister. The police detained a 16 year old male. He told the police where the woman's purse was located. The purse and its contents, except for approximately $200.00 dollars and credit cards, were found. The juvenile was booked at YGC for robbery, one suspect is still outstanding. The purse was returned to the victim.
