Press Release from the District Attorney's Office
Kamala Harris, District Attorney, announced that a San Francisco man was convicted on two counts of murder for a revenge killing of a man and his son. Joseph Stevens, could face a lifetime sentence without the possibility of parole for the October 14, 2005 slaying of Darnae Wysinger and his 2 year old son Naemon Wysinger.

The elder Wysinger's half brother was convicted in 2004 for the killing of an associate of Stevens. It is believed that Stevens killed Wysinger to avenge that death.

Crimes and Law Enforcement
THE BELOW LISTED INCIDENTS WERE SUBMITTED BY INDIVIDUALS OF BAYVIEW STATION:

Monday, March 19, 2007 at 9:30 PM – Burglary, Warehouse, Att. Forcible Entry; Malicious Mischief, Vandalism to Property. 200 Block of Jennings Ave. CS# 070 287 410 – Dispatch sent Officers Lee and Brown to the 200 Block of Jennings Avenue regarding an audible alarm. As Officer Lee and Officer Brown were conducting a premise check, they noticed that there was damage to one of the doors. The damage to the door was large enough for a person to fit through so they called dispatch and requested a canine unit to respond to their location. Sergeant Banta and Officer Mariona responded with their dogs and they searched the interior of the building but they were unable to locate any suspect(s). Officer Lee then met with the managers of the building to review possible surveillance tapes, but due to the low lighting of the building, they were unable to determine which exterior camera would have a view of the door. The managers told Officer Lee that they would review the tapes in the morning and transfer it to a viewable DVD. Officer Lee and Brown advised the managers about additional security measures and stood by while they secured the door.

Tuesday, March 10, 2007 at 7:58 PM – Marijuana Offense; Traffic Violation Arrest. 100 Block of Dakota. CS# 070 291 245 – Officers Mason and Lozano were in full police uniform in a marked patrol vehicle driving in the area of 23rd Street and Arkansas when a vehicle darted out in front of them almost causing a collision. The vehicle then sped off, at a high rate of speed, towards Dakota St. The officers conducted a traffic stop and as they approached the vehicle they detected a strong smell of marijuana coming from inside the vehicle. They also noticed that a small child was sitting in the rear middle seat without either a car seat or a seatbelt. Officer Mason asked the driver for her driver's license but the driver stated that she did not have it on her. As Officer Mason was speaking with the driver he saw in plain view, the remainder of two marijuana cigarettes sitting in the center ashtray of the vehicle. Officer Mason had the driver step out of the vehicle and she was placed in handcuffs pending further investigation. The driver insisted that the car was her boyfriend's and that he had smoked the marijuana before she borrowed his car. A search of the vehicle for additional narcotics revealed a baby seat in the trunk. After the officers verified the driver's identity, they issued her a misdemeanor citation for possession of marijuana as well as the above listed moving violations.

CS# 070 297 259 – While wearing plain clothes and driving an unmarked vehicle, Officers Scott, Lyons and Ellis responded to the 1600 Block of Kirkwood regarding a burglary. The victim told dispatch that a black female adult wearing a pink pull over sweatshirt had walked into his garage, without permission, and stole a drill and several drill bits. Officer Scott asked the victim if he wanted to get into the officer's unmarked vehicle and drive around in an attempt to locate the suspect. They found the man and detained him. The man boarded the bus at 2nd and Market Streets and during the trip the driver saw him threatening the other passengers. When the driver told him to sit down he threatened the driver. The officers searched the man and found a box cutter and methamphetamine. When the officers told the man he was under arrest for narcotics, and making threats the man stated, "It ain't no threat, it's a promise. I'm gonna get that (guy). I'm gonna get on the bus and wait for him. I'm gonna stab him!"

Friday, March 23, 2007 – 7:15 PM – Armed Robbery – Burrows Street and San Bruno Avenue – CS# 070 302 563 – A man was armed at gunpoint after cashing his check at a nearby cash checking store. The man said as he was walking he saw a van parked on Burrows Street. He saw three males exit the van. The young men who now had bandanas around their faces then surrounded him. The armed robber struck the man in the side of his head with the gun. The man handed over $600.00 to the robbers. The robbers got back into the van that was waiting for them. The relative brought the young man to the hospital and the staff called the police. A crime scene was not found at the basketball court, several people playing baseball nearby did not hear any gunshots, nor were there any 911 calls received. When the police came on scene a witness stepped forward and said that he saw a brown Honda pull up in front of the house and saw the suspect get out and jump over the side fence. He heard the suspect yell back to the people in the car. The witness believes that he can identify the car if he saw it again. Nothing was stolen in this incident.
