Crime and Enforcement Update

Cocaine offense 05/27/05 2:20pm 3rd and Newcomb
Officer in the plain clothes observed a man with a crack pipe. This is narcotics paraphernalia that is used to ingest (smoke) crack cocaine. The officers moved in and found that the pipe was loaded with a rock of suspected cocaine. He was arrested and booked at county jail. (050592671)

Poss of Marijuana for sale 05/27/05 8:20pm 3rd and Palou
Officers from the plain-clothes unit stopped because they believed that a narcotics transaction was taking place. Unfortunately for them they probably interrupted the sale before it happened. One of the subjects was ordered by the court to stay away from the area. He was arrested and booked on the charge. Officers frond cocaine so that was an additional charge. (050594025)

Controlled substance offense 05/27/05 3pm 1400 blk Thomas
In the area of Keith and Thomas officers observed a group of individuals engaged in conversation and huddled together. As the police approached some yelled 5-0, meaning the cops are near. The group dispersed. Officer recognized most of the group. The group had been admonished in the past. Four people were booked for loitering where narcotics are used or sold. (050593011)

Parole Warrant Arrest 05/27/05 5:20pm Unit blk
Nichols
A subject was stopped on the 26th and a computer check was done. The subject came back clear and was released. Subsequently a check showed that he was run under the wrong date of birth. He was run under the correct date of birth and found to be a scofflaw and possessing a parole warrant. The officer found the subject and booked him for the warrant. (050593453)

Battery on Police Officer 05/28/05 0:24am 100 blk
Westpoint
Shots fired call
Officers responded to the area on a report of shots fired. When they arrived there was no one around and they began searching the area for the suspect. An officer began chasing a suspect that matched the description. Other officers became involved. The suspect was running and refusing to take his right hand out of his waistband. The officers chased him down a corridor with other officers at the other end. Surprised, he tried to make a cut, lost his footing and the officers were there to try to arrest him. He still was refusing to show the officers his right hand. The officer wrestled his hand out from under him. He was hand cuffed. He said some vulgar things to the officers and then he spit on one of the officers foreheads. He complainer of pain and an ambulance crew refused to treat him because he was still hostile. He was latter booked. 050594570)
